

Anas El Lakkis
KAWKAB AL SHARQ

Biography

Anas El Lakkis is a Lebanese painter, caricaturist, and art educator from Kfarchouba, located in southern Lebanon. He holds a PhD and a Master's degree in Fine Arts from the Lebanese University, where he has also been teaching since 2023. Since 2014, he has been a faculty member at the Lebanese International University (LIU).

El Lakkis's expressive oil paintings have been exhibited widely across Lebanon and the Arab world, including the Ubuntu Art Gallery in Cairo (2024) and the Arab Art Fair in Beirut (2022).

He has received several awards, notably the First Prize at the Pierre Sadek Cartoon Contest (2018) and the Second Prize at the George Al-Bahgoury Art Contest in Egypt (2016).

Through his teaching and exhibitions, Anas El Lakkis continues to influence the contemporary Lebanese art scene with his distinctive visual language and dedication to artistic education.

About The Exhibition:

In his latest series, Lebanese artist Anas El Lakkis reimagines the legendary Umm Kulthum through a contemporary, cubist lens. With sharp lines, angular forms, and bold colors, El Lakkis captures not a portrait of the singer, but the energy of her voice and the rhythm of her performances.

Each painting translates the grandeur of her stage presence, her expressive gestures, her signature white handkerchief, and the deep connection with her musicians and audience into visual harmony.

Blending abstraction and nostalgia, El Lakkis transforms the iconic figure of Umm Kulthum into a modern symbol of cultural memory and artistic expression. His works celebrate the enduring resonance of her music, reminding us that some voices never fade; they simply find new forms on canvas.
